4. Essential Bidding Requirements

4.1 Motivation to Host the Event

World Boxing is interested in learning the prevailing reasons of the bidding parties to host this event. Please outline the motivation for hosting the event.

4.2 Event Dates

World Boxing requires that the bid documents specify the Event dates. In case of a successful bid, World Boxing will not allow a change of these dates without extraordinary circumstances and pending the approval of the Confederation's Executive Board. Dates of the proposed Confederation Championships bids must be set during the months of August-November 2026. Bids that have dates falling outside of these months will not be considered.

4.3 Host City

World Boxing requires the Host City to be named. In case of a successful bid, World Boxing will not allow a change of the Host City without the approval of the Confederation's Executive Board.

5. Host National Federation

World Boxing is interested in learning about boxing competitions that have been organised by the potential Host National Federation in the previous ten years to assess the experience and expertise in event organisation.

5.1 Local Organising Committee Composition and Volunteers

The Host National Federation is required to create and appropriately staff a Local Organising Committee (LOC) for the planning and organisation of the event to ensure its success.

The Host National Federation is ultimately responsible for all actions of the LOC. Any third-party organisation involved in the planning or operation of the Event must be approved by World Boxing and the Confederation.

In case of a successful bid, World Boxing requires an immediate designation of the LOC Competition Manager to oversee all organisational matters related to the Event and to serve as the main point of contact with World Boxing and the Confederation.

Other important LOC positions to be considered include: Visa and Customs Manager, Accreditation Manager, Transportation Manager, Accommodation Manager, Volunteers Manager, Protocol Manager, Marketing & Branding Manager, PR & Communications Manager, TV & Broadcasting Manager, Photographer, Videographer, Competition Venue Manager, Training Venue Manager, Catering Manager, Security Manager, Medical Services Manager, Sports Presentation Manager, and Results Distribution Manager.

Volunteers play a significant role in the organisation of boxing competitions. The LOC is obligated to secure the services, adequately train, and ensure daily presence of at least 5-10 volunteers per ring to assist in the Field of Play and around the Competition/Training Venues throughout the Event. World Boxing advises that additional volunteers are engaged in assisting with arrivals and departures of Teams, with accreditation, local transportation, catering, VIP management, ceremonies, etc.

6. Competition Venue

A Competition venue must be designated and described in detail to meet the following World Boxing requirements for the organisation of the Event:

- A minimum seating capacity of 500, where at least 100 seats are reserved for Teams and 20 for the World Boxing Family (that is, VIP seating)
- Field of Play (FOP) with space for up to two rings, according to Event Rules (16x32m)
- Solid colour, durable, non-slippery cover for the entire FOP
- Warm-up area that can comfortably accommodate at least 40 persons simultaneously

- Minimum two changing rooms with showers, each with a capacity to simultaneously accommodate at least 15 persons
- Anti-doping room/space with direct access to a toilet
- One medical room
- One sufficiently equipped lounge for R&Js for approximately 40 people, with catering facilities and access to restrooms
- One sufficiently equipped lounge for TO's for approximately 20 people, with catering facilities and access to restrooms.
- One designated lounge for VIPs inside the competition venue
- One sufficiently equipped office room for LOC.
- One sufficiently equipped office room for World Boxing staff, with an individual, secure and safe wi-fi source, separate from any other network.
- Sufficiently equipped media workstations with access to the FOP
- Storage room or area for equipment.
- Air-conditioning capable of sustaining temperatures of 18°C – 22°C around the Competition Venue regardless of weather conditions, attendance, installed equipment and other external conditions.
- Minimum of 2000 lux of lighting, evenly covering canvases of each ring unless agreed otherwise.
- High-quality sound system
- One large LED screen display and/or perimeter LED displays
- Sufficient number of uniform tables and chairs for the FOP, according to the relevant Event Rules
- Reliable, dedicated and secured high speed Internet access, with sufficient dedicated bandwidth for TV broadcasting, Wi-Fi coverage of the entire competition venue and separate Wi-Fi access channels for the LOC Office, World Boxing Office and Media
- Located within a maximum travel time of 30 minutes from any Event Hotel and Training Venue
- Sufficient large space(s) for technical meeting, official draw, daily weigh-in and medical check, according to regulations (unless these activities are held in a Team Hotel, as it is preferable)
- Sufficient large space for Technical Officials' daily meetings (unless these activities are held in the TO Hotel, as it is preferable)
- Access Controlled secure parking (20+ parking spots) area for VIP, TO buses, Athlete Shuttles and LOC Personnel transport.

Please note that in case of a successful bid, World Boxing will not allow a change of the Competition Venue without the approval of the Confederation Executive Board with a time frame of 12 weeks before the Competition start date.

7. Training Venue

One or more Training Venues must be designated for this Event, to meet the following World Boxing requirements:

- At least one boxing ring
- Sufficient space for heavy bags and other training equipment
- Space for floor exercises
- At least two separate changing rooms with showers, unless the training venue is located within walking distance from the host hotel
- The training venue must be open throughout the Event period for 8-12 hours per day, with a doctor onsite during opening hours.
- Located within a maximum travel time of 30 minutes from any Event Hotel
- Access controlled parking (up to 5 parking spaces) area for athlete shuttles and LOC personnel transport.

8. Event Hotels

World Boxing requires the designation of a sufficient number of hotels to accommodate all participant groups separately:

8.1 Team Hotel(s)

To accommodate an estimated total number of Teams and Extra Persons, with the following requirements:

- One or more 3 or 4 star hotels with sufficient total capacity
- Maximum room rate for single occupancy: EUR 160 per person/day
- Maximum room rate for twin occupancy: EUR 130 per person/day
- Maximum room rate for triple occupancy: EUR 100 per person/day
- All room rates will consider local pricing and will be agreed upon with World Boxing during discussion and approval of the bid
- Room rates include three daily meals (buffet)
- Free wireless Internet access
- Separate spaces for at least two test scales, one per gender, in each hotel.

- Sufficient large space(s) for the technical meeting (100 persons), official boxers' draw, daily weigh-in and medical check according to regulations in one of the Team Hotels (unless these activities are held in the Competition Venue).
- Designated area for schedules and information boards within the hotel lobby.
- Dedicated pickup and drop-off parking for athlete shuttles

Hotel charges are covered by respective Teams.

8.2 VIP Hotel

To accommodate the Confederation President, Confederation Board Members, Secretary General and VIP guests, with the following requirements:

- A 4 or 5-star hotel
- Room rates include three daily buffet meals
- Free wireless Internet access

The Confederation Boxing President, Confederation Board Members and Secretary General's accommodation and meals are covered by the LOC. Other hotel charges are covered by respective VIP guests.

The VIP hotel may be the same as Team Hotel if agreed with World Boxing.

8.3 Technical Officials' Hotel

To accommodate all appointed Technical Officials and World Boxing staff, with the following requirements:

- A 3- or 4-star hotel
- 1 suite for the Technical Delegate is preferred, to be covered by the LOC
- R&Js accommodated in single or twin rooms, to be covered partially by the LOC and partially by the participating NFs, unless previously agreed otherwise
- Single rooms for all other TOs appointed by World Boxing and World Boxing staff, to be covered by the LOC
- Three daily buffet meals served to all R&J's, TO's and World Boxing staff
- Free wireless Internet access
- Sufficient large space for Technical Officials' daily meetings (unless these activities are held in the Competition Venue)
- Designated area for schedules and information boards within the hotel lobby.

- Dedicated pickup and drop-off parking for athlete shuttles

The Technical Officials' Hotel must not be the same as the Team Hotel and VIP hotel.

Please note that in case of a successful bid, World Boxing will not allow a change of the Event Hotels without the approval of the Confederation Executive Board.

9. International Transportation

World Boxing requires the designation of the Event ports of entry (airport(s) and train station(s)) from and to which the LOC will organise transfers of Teams, R&J's, Technical Officials and World Boxing/Confederation staff.

Furthermore, World Boxing mandates that all reasonable event-related international transportation expenses, including those associated with coordination visits, are covered by the LOC for the Technical Delegate, World Boxing staff, R&J's and TOs appointed by World Boxing. Teams, Extra Persons, as well as all other Event participants and guests should cover their own international travel expenses.

10. Local Transportation

World Boxing requires that the LOC provide the following transportation for accredited participants:

- Free scheduled transportation by bus between the designated ports of entry and respective Team Hotel, as well as between Team Hotel(s) and Competition/Training Venues for all Teams and Extra Persons.
- Free scheduled transportation by bus or car between the designated ports of entry and respective TO Hotel, as well as between TO Hotel and Competition/Training Venues for all Technical Officials and World Boxing Staff
- Free necessary and reasonable on-demand local transportation by a dedicated car or pool of cars for the World Boxing Secretary General, World Boxing Sport Department Staff, and World Boxing Technical Delegate
- Free necessary and reasonable on-demand local transportation by a dedicated vehicle for the World Boxing President

11. TV Production, Broadcasting, Videography & Photography

World Boxing requires the LOC to organise and cover the cost of TV production and broadcasting/live streaming of the following activities during the Event:

- All preliminary, quarter-final, and semi-final round bouts (Live streaming produced using a minimum of 1 HD camera per ring, pre-approved graphics presentation package with official scoring system interface)
- Final round bouts and medal ceremonies (Live TV and streaming produced using a minimum of 3 HD camera per ring, pre-approved graphics presentation package with official scoring system interface).

Furthermore, World Boxing requires that a dedicated videographer and a photographer is hired by the LOC for the entire duration of the Event. The task of a videographer is to produce daily highlight and behind-the-scenes video clips as well as short interviews for distribution via World Boxing and/or the Confederation's social media. A photographer is tasked with taking photographs of bouts, ceremonies, meetings as well as behind-the-scenes stills throughout the Event.

Finally, it is required for the LOC to provide World Boxing and the Confederation with video and photograph content regularly throughout the competition period.

12. Promotion and Marketing

World Boxing is interested in the activities that can be implemented by the LOC to promote the Event via different channels. At the same time, World Boxing would like to learn about the ticketing strategy and attendance targets that are important for this Event.

13. Medical Services and Anti-Doping

It is obligatory for the LOC to assume responsibility for managing all medical emergencies occurring in the Competition Venue throughout the Event period that involve any accredited representatives of Teams, all Technical Officials, World Boxing/Confederation Staff, and Volunteers.

All event participants are required to have travel insurance for any additional medical services required outside of the competition venue.

World Boxing requires that two ambulances (one for each ring), equipped in accordance with the regulations, with crews of paramedics and dedicated drivers, are contracted to service this Event during every day of competition from 60 minutes before the start of the first bout until all boxers have left the Competition Venue. The LOC is also obligated to designate the nearest hospital for emergency treatment, which must include a neurosurgery department.

LOC must also provide for and bear the cost of sufficient anti-doping testing at this event by an ITA-accredited organisation and guarantee that all collected samples are analysed by an ITA-accredited laboratory. Testing must be conducted in accordance with the WADA Code and World Boxing Anti-Doping Regulations. The minimum number of anti-doping tests must not be lower than 8% of the number of athletes entered.

14. Host Fee and Per Diem

World Boxing encourages a submission of a proposed “Host Fee” amount, depending on bid conditions.

World Boxing also requires that the LOC pays a per diem allowance of EUR 100 to the Technical Delegate (including the coordination visit) and EUR 50 per person to all TOs appointed by World Boxing. Per diem must be paid on arrival and include travel days of all TO's. The amount should be paid in full to the Confederation for the distribution to be made to TO's from Confederation staff, unless agreed on otherwise.

In addition to the proposed Host Fee, bidders are required to submit a complete event budget proposal (Annex 2).

15. Government Support

World Boxing requires a formal letter of support to host the Event from the respective Government and/or the City/Region authorities as a part of the bid proposal, offering:

- Guarantees of upholding the human rights, in particular the freedom from any kind of discrimination
- Entry support to all participating Teams from Confederation Member National Boxing Federations and visa support where necessary
- Financial guarantees
- Other relevant support and contribution

16. Additional Offers

Please propose any additional offers and provide additional details, which might strengthen the bid, such as:

- Education and development programs for participating boxers
- New innovative projects organised by the LOC
- Sustainability programmes and environmental considerations
- Opening / closing ceremonies
- Hosting supplementary events, such as the World Boxing Executive Board Meeting, World Boxing Commission Meeting(s), certification & development courses, forums, award ceremonies, etc.
- Programs for VIPs

17. Bid Selection Criteria

The World Boxing Sport Department will assess all bids to ensure they fulfil all technical requirements in a transparent and objective manner. The following criteria (in no particular order) for the selection of the Event Host City and Host National Federation will be used in the evaluation subsequently decided by the World Boxing and Confederation Executive Board:

- Quality of the overall bid (location, presentation, services, LOC organisational structure, etc.)
- Accessibility of Host City (visa policies, ease of access, quality of ports of entry, distances, etc.)
- Competition venue (infrastructure, security, technology, number of seats, accessibility, etc.)
- TV production and broadcasting (capacity, quality, experience, etc.)
- Local transportation (distances, quality and quantity of vehicles, etc.)
- Accommodation & food (quality of hotels proposed, location of hotels)
- Marketing & promotion
- Government and other institutional support offered to the bid
- Spectator experience
- Legacy (boxing development opportunities, delivery of cultural activities)
- Previous experience in staging international boxing competitions
- Risk factors (political, environmental, economic)

The decision to award the hosting rights by the World Boxing Executive Board and Confederation Board is final and cannot be appealed.

18. Bid Document Submission Guidelines

World Boxing requires the following for the Bid document:

- The bid document must include all aspects requested within these bidding guidelines, including an operational budget for the event.
- All content should be typed and in English
- The use of graphics and visual content is permitted
- The Bid document should be presented in A4-size format
- Short videos of no longer than three (3) minutes may be used in any formal presentations of the bid

Bidding-related inquiries, Letter of Intent, and the final Bid Document, including the Bid questionnaire, should be sent by email to the following email:

World Boxing Sport Department – sport@worldboxing.org
