EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Experienced international sport administrator with over 30 years of leadership in governance, integrity, and public service. Chaiwat Chotima has spent 20+ years with the Thailand Boxing Association, where he served as Vice President, Chair of the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee, and Governance Advisor, driving reforms that strengthened transparency, inclusivity, and athlete welfare.

As Sport Integrity Officer for Asian Boxing, he continues to lead continent-wide initiatives in ethical governance and referee-and-judge education. In addition, his role as an independent director in the banking sector reinforces his expertise in compliance, accountability, and strategic oversight—qualities that define his leadership within the global boxing community.
