

A dynamic Indonesian entrepreneur and respected sports power-broker. In the boardroom, Oktohari expands the family-owned OSO Group across mining, plantations, fisheries, transport and hospitality.

In sport, he rose from community cycling advocate to two-term President of NOC Indonesia, Senior Vice-President of the Asian Cycling Confederation and Chef de Mission at the Rio 2016 Olympics—driving landmark athlete bonuses and lifting Indonesia's WADA sanctions.

Recognised as "Father of Indonesian Cycling," he blends commercial acumen with global sports diplomacy.

SPORTS AND SPORTS POLICY LEADERSHIP

2019 – Present National Olympic Committee of Indonesia, *President

2023 – 2027 (re-elected)

- Launched "Indonesia Olympic Champions" overseas training program, aligned with national sports grand design.
- Led task force whose diplomacy lifted WADA-imposed sanctions on Indonesia's anti-doping agency seven months early.
- Secured Presidential approval for higher Olympic medal bonuses; +IDR500 million per medalist.

2019 – 2023 (first term)

- Defended athletes' rights in high-profile disputes (SEA Games hockey exclusion; All England badminton incident).
- Modernised NOC governance; elected unopposed.

2021 – 2025 Asian Cycling Confederation, *Senior Vice-President

- Awarded ACC Special Order of Merit (2022) for continental cycling development.

2015 - Present Indonesian Cycling Federation (PB ISSI), *Chairman (Hon. Chairman 2019 to Present)

- Qualified Indonesia's first-ever Olympic cyclist (Rio 2016).
- Revived Tour de Indonesia after 7-year hiatus; brought UCI-class events (Asian Track Championships, ACC Urban, Banyuwangi BMX).
- Expanded athlete/coach scholarships at UCI World Training Center (Switzerland).

2015 - 2016 Chef de Mission, Indonesia – Rio 2016 Olympic Games

- Personally funded IDR100 million bonuses for each qualified athlete.
- Oversaw 28-athlete team winning 1 gold (badminton) & 2 silvers (weightlifting); lobbied government to quintuple medal bonuses (gold IDR5 billion).

2016 - 2018 Indonesian Asian Para Games Organising Committee (INAPGOC), *Chairman

- Delivered the 2018 Asian Para Games in Jakarta successfully within a record 11-month preparation period after taking over the chairmanship.
- Executed the event on-budget and to international standards, recently declared by the Asian Paralympic Committee as the best-ever Asian Para Games to date.
- Managed complex logistics and coordination across multiple venues in the Gelora Bung Karno Sports Complex with operational excellence and a strong athlete-centric approach.
- Oversaw Indonesia surpassing medal targets with a historic haul of 33 gold medals, highlighting both athlete performance and event support systems.
- Marked a significant milestone in Indonesian sports by initiating parity of treatment between able-bodied and disabled athletes from the Ministry of Youth and Sports, fostering inclusivity and equal recognition.

- Enhanced public awareness and accessibility for persons with disabilities, promoting lasting social impact beyond the Games.
- Transformed momentum from the successful 2018 Asian Games into unparalleled focus and energy, setting a new benchmark for para-sport events in Asia.
- Maintained strong government and stakeholder engagement, contributing to national pride and Indonesia's leadership in inclusive sports.

2011 - 2015 Jakarta Provincial Cycling Federation, *Chairman

- Grass-roots programs that fed national-level success; initiated citywide Bike-to-Work campaigns.

COMMERCIAL & ENTREPRENEURIAL LEADERSHIP

2000 – Present OSO Group, *Director & Family Shareholder

- Steers diversification into mining, plantations, fisheries, transport, communications & hospitality; drives new capital projects.

2000 – Present Mahkota Promotion, *Founder & International Boxing Promoter

- Youngest certified international boxing promoter; staged multiple world-title bouts in Indonesia.
- Honoured “Asian Promoter of the Year” (World Boxing Association) & “Honorary Promoter of the Year 2018” (WBC Asia).
- Elevated Indonesian boxing talent to global rankings via marquee events.

2000 – Present Indonesian Young Entrepreneurs Association (HIPMI), *Chairman

- Led 30,000-member body during high-growth era; launched nationwide SME mentorship and investment forums linking youth entrepreneurs with capital.