

CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHY

Rauan IGENEV

KAZ

Nominated by Kazakhstan Boxing Federation to the position of World Boxing Vice President, Executive Board Member, Chair of Sports and Competition Committee.

PROFILE

Mr Rauan Igenev is Executive Director of the Kazakhstan Boxing Federation and a sports administrator with experience spanning federation management, government sports policy and the Olympic Movement. Since taking up his current position in February 2024, he has led the development of the Federation's strategy, financing structure, athlete pathway and international activities.

EXPERIENCE

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Finance from the International Academy of Business and a Master of Science in International Business from Robert Gordon University in Aberdeen. He is also enrolled in the International Master Programme in Olympic Studies at the German Sport University Cologne.

Before moving into federation leadership, Rauan Igenev served as an Advisor to the Minister of Culture and Sport of the Republic of Kazakhstan and subsequently as Director of Educational, Scientific Activities and International Cooperation. His experience has included work related to national sports policy and Kazakhstan's participation in the Rio 2016 and PyeongChang 2018 Olympic Games. He also serves as a member of the Legal Council of the National Olympic Committee of Kazakhstan.

At the Kazakhstan Boxing Federation, he has overseen a development programme focused on securing financing, strengthening depth across men's and women's weight categories, expanding international competition opportunities and developing the Federation's media presence. He chaired the Organising Committee for the World Boxing Cup Astana 2025 and has been involved in Kazakhstan securing the right to host the 2027 World Boxing Championships.

His governance experience covers strategic planning, budgeting, policy development, stakeholder engagement, legal and compliance matters, communications and international sports diplomacy.

PRIORITIES

As a candidate, Rauan Igenev has identified fair and transparent competition, athlete development, strong governance, financial sustainability and international cooperation as priorities. His stated objective is to contribute practical federation-management and sports-policy experience to World Boxing while supporting consistent competition standards and opportunities for athletes across Member Federations.
